“The City Built for Family Living”

Finance Department

April 5, 2016

Mayor and City Council Members:

The Finance Department is pleased to submit the Unaudited Monthly Financial Report for the month of February 2016. The 2015 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) was presented to Council on March 15, 2016. The City received an “Unmodified Opinion” such an opinion states that the City followed all accounting rules appropriately and that the financial report is an accurate representation of the city’s financial condition.

Total revenues exceeded expenditures in all of the major funds of the City with the exception of the Golf Course Fund. The Golf Course operating expenses exceeded operating revenues by $90,214. The fund collected $18,553 of the budgeted revenues in February 2016. The General Fund continues to cover the deficit in the Golf Course, and City staff continues to monitor the expenses in the Golf Course Fund.

The key economic indicators provide some insight for the financial activity of the City. The Finance Department estimated the revenue for sales tax for the month of February 2016, because sales tax reporting experiences a two (2) month lag. Sales tax revenue collections Year-To-Date decreased by $19,831 in comparison to the prior year. The number of active water utility accounts showed an increase of accounts in comparison to the number of active accounts as of February 2015. The hotel occupancy tax revenue collections increased in comparison to prior year. The unemployment rate in the City showed a decrease in comparison to the percentage as of February 2015. City staff will continue to monitor revenues and expenditures in all City funds and evaluate the impact of key economic indicators on the City’s financial position.

We hope regular monitoring of the City’s financial position will continue to provide the City Council with information that is useful for making sound policy decisions.

Respectfully submitted,

Velia Key
Director of Financial Services

Economic and Market Commentary: Market predicting instead of listening to Fed

March 1, 2016

Divining the future monetary policy maneuvers of the Federal Reserve can be frustration personified, but that doesn't stop the market from trying. I suppose few of us would work in this field if we didn't like thinking about expectations. But as futures go, the market's predictions for the fed funds rate are not particularly reliable. We think they are off now and that the market is underestimating the Fed's willingness to hike.

The prevailing view is that there's only around a 50% chance of one rate hike this year. One! That is almost disregarding what the Fed is telling us. More than a few Fed officials have said not to assume the hike in December was a one-and-done move (the minutes of the January policy-setting meeting were balanced—not dovish or hawkish). The Fed has gone to considerable length for several years now to let the market know it is data dependent and if anything, the U.S. economy has been steady to slightly positive. Housing, employment, retail sales and even CPI have been ticking up. We are not saying the U.S. is running on all cylinders, but we are certainly not in any way, shape or form close to a situation that would indicate negative rates.

Let's not forget that the Fed is the global leader. While the world's central banks don't have to follow it, the Fed certainly doesn't have to follow them. This divergence applies

Definition of Weighted Average Maturity and Weighted Average Life

WAM is the mean average of the periods of time remaining until the securities held in TexPool (a) are scheduled to be repaid, (b) would be repaid upon a demand by TexPool, or (c) are scheduled to have their interest rate readjusted to reflect current market rates. Securities with adjustable rates payable upon demand are treated as maturing on the earlier of the two dates set forth in (b) and (c) if their scheduled maturity is 397 days or less; and the later of the two dates set forth in (b) and (c) if their scheduled maturity is more than 397 days. The mean is weighted based on the percentage of the amortized cost of the portfolio invested in each period.

WAL is calculated in the same manner as WAM, but is based solely on the periods of time remaining until the securities held in TexPool (a) are scheduled to be repaid or (b) would be repaid upon a demand by TexPool, without reference to when interest rates of securities within TexPool are scheduled to be readjusted.

to that issue of negative rates, which also have been getting much too much attention. With the Bank of Japan's recent move to negative rates, the question was bound to be raised when Fed Chair Janet Yellen had her semiannual Humphrey-Hawkins testimony last month. While the Chair acknowledged that as a matter of prudent planning a negative rate policy could not be ruled out entirely, she did not give any indication that the Fed was contemplating such a drastic move. Yellen does not shy away from addressing issues that are concerning to the markets, so it is telling that she didn't have any mention of negative rates in her prepared remarks. The media has given this much more attention than it ever deserved.

Another reason for our confidence is more technical. As firms have been preparing for the upcoming SEC money fund rules by converting some products to government funds, there's been concern that the additional demand will drive rates negative. But a substantial portion of the shift has already occurred and we have not seen any impact on rates. Even though the government money fund assets have passed prime money fund assets for the first time, there is plenty of supply. And just as significant, the Reverse Repo Program's floor of 25 basis points has hardly been used and market repo rates haven't been below 30 basis points more than a handful of times this whole year. While it is good that investors and media are more engaged on monetary policy, it is unfortunate that negative rates have unnecessarily colored the discourse.

90-Day Treasury Bill is a short-term debt instrument backed by the national government. These are used to collect immediate cash to meet outstanding obligations.

Any private investor can invest in a Treasury bill. The 90-Day Treasury Bill is a weighted average rate of the weekly auctions of 90-Day Treasury Bills.

Libor has pretty much been holding steady and pretty attractive. We continue to maintain a neutral Weighted Average Maturity (WAM) stance and keep the long end of our barbell shorter, just to be flexible.
