City of Copperas Cove

- The Copperas Cove Library provides wireless access to its network for public Internet use.

- Library patrons are cautioned that the Library is a public area, which must be shared by Library users of all ages, backgrounds, and sensibilities. Individuals are asked to consider this and to respect others when accessing information and images.

- Library patrons may not use the library's wireless network to transmit or receive illegal (including harmful or obscene) or disruptive material. Library patrons are expected to respect intellectual property rights by making only authorized copies of copyrighted or licensed software or data residing on the Internet.

- Violation of the Library's Wireless Policy or abuse of networking equipment may result in the denial of access to the wireless network.

- Library staff members are not able to provide technical assistance and the library assumes no responsibility for laptop configurations, security or changes to data files resulting from connection to the Library's network.

- Wireless access is provided as a public service free of charge. The service is on an "as is" basis with no guarantee and no warranty.

- Information passing through the Library's wireless access is not secured and could be monitored, captured, or altered by others.

- It is the customer's sole responsibility to protect their information from all risks associated with using the Internet, including any damage, loss, theft that may occur as a result of one's use of the Library's wireless access.

- It is highly recommended that customers charge their laptop before visiting the library. Electrical outlets are limited and are sometimes not ideally located near a table or seating.

- The Library assumes no responsibility for the safety of equipment; users must keep their equipment with them at all times.

- Any restriction or monitoring of a minor's access to the library's wireless network is the sole responsibility of the parent or guardian.

- Wireless users requiring sound must use their own headphones and create no noise that might disturb other library users.

- Wireless network users will not be able to use the Library's printers to print documents. To print, a patron must log onto one of our public use computers.

WARNING: The Library is not liable for the consequences of wireless network use in any way, including the transmission of computer viruses, loss of data or e-mail, or any harm resulting from the use of an unsecured server.