Youth Advisory Council

Copperas Cove, Texas – The City of Copperas Cove is accepting applications to fill youth positions on the Youth Advisory Council. The purpose of the City Council Appointed Advisory Body is to define specific ways to address youth community issues and the development of activities and programs designed and promoted through the City and the Copperas Cove Independent School District. The Council will also encourage and promote the education of youth regarding City government and importance of youth input, participation and responsibility.

The advisory body consists of thirty youth members and one adult liaison, appointed to two year terms each, and meets monthly on the first Monday. Eligible youth participants must be a student, between grades 8-12, and in good standing.

Applications are available at 914 South Main Street, Suite C, or on the City website, www.copperascovetx.gov under “Online Resources”, “Forms and Applications”. The position vacancy will be advertised through February 12, 2016. Completed applications must be submitted to the office of the City Secretary by the submittal deadline, February 22, 2016 at 5pm, for consideration.

For further information please contact City Secretary Mariela Altott at maltott@copperascovetx.gov or (254)547-4221.
