Library – Heather Dale Performance

Copperas Cove, Texas – The Copperas Cove Library, located at 501 South Main Street, will host a FREE Heather Dale performance on Friday, June 10, 2016 from 7pm to 9pm in the meeting room. There will be no charge to the public thanks to a generous sponsorship from the Friends of the Copperas Cove Library.

Heather Dale, a Canadian singer/songwriter who fuses traditional stories with a mix of Celtic Folk, world music and rock influences, will conduct a single performance. Her past visits to Copperas Cove have delighted and amazed the local audience, and we are glad to welcome her back once again. Further information may be viewed at www.HeatherDale.com and www.QueensOfAvalon.com.

This event is very family friendly, as Heather's songs are witty, fun-loving, and imaginative. Families are encouraged to bring children and join us for this great start to the 2016 Summer Reading Program. The Friends will also offer a bake sale for refreshments prior to the concert and during intermission.

For further information please contact the Library at (254)547-3826.
