Library Summer Reading Program

Copperas Cove, Texas – The Copperas Cove Public Library, located at 501 South Main Street, will host a Summer Reading Program from June 14, 2016 through July 28, 2016. The annual program is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Be sure to join us for the official Summer Reading Kick-Off on Wednesday, June 15, 2016 at 10am in the meeting room. Sign-up for the program will begin today and is on-going throughout the summer at the library. All registration and programs are FREE to the public.

Children age one to eleven may complete Reading Time Logs at three levels to receive rewards of coupons and toys. There will be a weekly Toddler Time for children age one to three and a weekly Story Time for children age three to five. These programs are in a Story Time format with stories, songs, and crafts. Community organizations and local businesses will present interactive and educational programs for children age five to eleven. The weekly Teen Club programs are designed specifically for young teens age eleven to sixteen. Teens may enter weekly drawings for gift cards or coupons to local businesses. The library will present professional musicians, animal shows, and entertainers for all ages on Thursday afternoons for six consecutive weeks.

Children under age ten must be accompanied by an adult at all times in the library. Complete calendars and details will be provided at sign-up. For more information regarding these events please contact the Library at (254)547-3826.
