City Council Selects Ryan D. Haverlah as City Manager

Copperas Cove, Texas – The Copperas Cove City Council held a Special Meeting today, Tuesday, June 25, 2019, at 830am for the purpose of discussing and interviewing potential City Manager candidates during an Executive Session. Following interviews, City Council reconvened into Open Session where a motion was presented to select Mr. Ryan D. Haverlah as City Manager; the motion passed unanimously 7-0. The official appointment date has not yet been determined.

Mr. Haverlah began employment with the City of Copperas Cove in March of 2011 and has held various titles, to include Budget Director, Assistant Finance Director, Assistant to the City Manager and Deputy City Manager. He was most recently named the Interim City Manager in February of 2018.

Mr. Haverlah received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Angelo State University in December of 2002 and graduated from Texas State University's Certified Public Manager Program in December of 2016.

Mr. Haverlah resides in the City of Copperas Cove with his wife Erica, and they are the proud parents of three boys.

Questions may be directed to Public Information Officer Kevin Keller at kkeller@copperascovetx.gov or (254)547-4221 ext. 6243.
