City Hires City Secretary – Lucy Aldrich

Copperas Cove, Texas – The City of Copperas Cove is pleased to announce Ms. Lucy Aldrich has accepted the position of City Secretary. She began her employment earlier this week on Monday, October 3, 2016.

Ms. Aldrich was born and raised in Houston, Texas. She has spent many years traveling abroad with her military spouse, having the opportunity to work in many different administrative fields over the past twenty-eight years. Ms. Aldrich brings with her fifteen years of experience working in Municipal Government, serving as administrative support to both executive leaders and City management.

Ms. Aldrich obtained an Associate's Degree in Office Systems from Elizabethtown Community College, a system of the University of Kentucky, in 2001. She has been a resident of Copperas Cove for fifteen years. Ms. Aldrich and her husband Glenn of twenty-six years raised two sons in our community, both of which are graduates from Copperas Cove High School.

Ms. Aldrich can be located at City Hall, 914 S. Main Street, Suite C, and she can be contacted at laldrich@copperascovetx.gov or (254)547-4221.

For additional information please contact Kevin Keller at kkeller@copperascovetx.gov or (254)547-4221.
