

CHIEF TIM MOLNES MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Tim Molnes joined the Copperas Cove Police Department on January 7, 1980 and promoted through his career until reaching the position of Chief of Police in July of 1999. He dedicated his life to Copperas Cove until ending his fight with cancer, fittingly, on Memorial Day, May 30th of 2016. He not only held the title of Copperas Cove's top community caretaker but also worked tirelessly at advancing the needs of the City. He especially had a passion for facilitating the growth and development of our youth. Tim's passion was validated during his oversight of the Law Enforcement Explorer Program, which has become a model program for many other communities.
