Arrest Made on Multiple Vehicle Burglary Cases

COPPERAS COVE, TEXAS – COPPERAS COVE, TEXAS – Between December 22, 2014 and December 30, 2014, the Copperas Cove Police Department began investigating multiple reported vehicle burglaries occurring throughout the City. Approximately $3000.00 in cash and property was reported stolen.

On January 26, 2015, Detectives arrested 19 year old male and Copperas Cove resident, Preston Shawn Hyden, on ten (10) warrants for Burglary of a Vehicle. Further investigation has revealed that Preston Hyden was assisted in the burglaries by 19 year old female and Copperas Cove resident, Abby Marie Fox.

As a result, ten (10) warrants for Burglary of a Vehicle have been issued by Justice of the Peace Bill Price for the arrest of Abby Fox. Abby Fox is currently at large and is believed to be attempting to flee the area.

On January 27, 2015, Preston Hyden was arraigned by Justice of the Peace Bill Price and received a $50,000 Surety Bond for the ten counts of Burglary of a Vehicle.

Update

On January 28, 2015, Abby Marie Fox turned herself into the Copperas Cove Police Department and is pending arraignment on ten (10) charges of Burglary of a Vehicle.

The Copperas Cove Police Department would like to thank the community for their assistance with locating and informing Abby Marie Fox of the warrants.
