Terroristic Threat Incident Update

COPPERAS COVE, TEXAS – On June 3, 2015 at 10:03 A.M. Officers responded to 332 Town Square (GC Services) in reference to a bomb threat call which resulted in the evacuation of the business as a safety precaution. Copperas Cove Police Department Detectives were able to trace the phone number back to an employee of the business. The suspect in this incident was Andreius Martinez Moore, a 24 yr old resident of Harker Heights. Andreius Martinez Moore was taken into custody on scene and transported to the Copperas Cove Police Department on the charge of terroristic threat. Andreius was arraigned on June 4, 2015 and received a $20,000 Surety Bond and remains in the Copperas Cove Jail, pending release once bond is posted.
