Aggravated Robbery Incidents

COPPERAS COVE, TEXAS – Copperas Cove Police are investigating Aggravated Robbery incidents at two separate locations in the City that occurred in the evening hours on August 18, 2016.

Officers responded to the 7-Eleven Convenience Store, 2124 E Hwy 190 on Thursday, August 18, 2016 at around 10:48 P.M. for a report of a robbery. The attendant reported she had just been robbed by an armed suspect. The attendant advised the suspect entered the store, demanded money, and then fled on foot from the store with an undisclosed amount of money.

At approximately 11:00 P.M. Copperas Cove police responded to the Mickey's Convenience Store, 1306 Georgetown Road for a second robbery. The attendant reported she had just been robbed by an armed suspect. The attendant also advised the suspect entered the store, demanded money, and then fled on foot from the store with an undisclosed amount of money.

The suspects in both incidents brandished a black handgun during the robberies. The suspects from both robberies were described as slender black males, approximately 6'00" wearing black ski masks, black windbreaker type jackets, black pants, black shoes, black gloves, and carrying black backpacks.

There were no reported injuries during both incidents.
