Senior Activity Center Temporary Closure Due to Water Damage

Copperas Cove, Texas – Due to water damage as a result of an overnight broken water line, the Copperas Cove Senior Activity Center has been temporarily closed until further notice. Upon arrival this morning staff noticed the damage and made notification to seniors who had arrived at the center. The City and the Parks & Recreation Dept. are working through the processes of documenting, cleaning, and reporting the damages to our insurance provider. We apologize for any inconveniences this may once again cause our residents.

Specific questions or concerns may be directed to Parks and Recreation at (254) 542-2719.
