Kite Festival Canceled

Copperas Cove, Texas – The City of Copperas Cove and Parks & Recreation invite the public to attend the 2nd Annual Kite Festival on Saturday, July 18, 2020 from 4pm to 6pm at Ogletree Gap Preserve, located at 1878 Post Office Road. July is Parks and Recreation Month and this is just one of the ways in which we wish to celebrate with our community!

The event will include the following activities: kite flying, music, food trucks, market vendors, yard games, kid activities and much more. The Kite Festival is family oriented and suitable for all ages. We encourage you to bring a lawn chair and umbrella to help beat the heat. Don't have a kite? No worries, we will have unlimited complimentary kites available! This is a FREE event for all. (*food truck and vendor purchases will have associated fees)

For more information on becoming an event sponsor or to reserve a spot as a vendor, contact Special Events Coordinator Ashley Wilson at awilson@copperascovetx.gov or (254) 542-2719.

Wednesday, July 8, 2020 (Update)

Copperas Cove, Texas – As a result of Governor Abbott's Executive Order GA-29, and subsequent amendment of Executive Order GA-28, the 2nd Annual Kite Festival is unfortunately being canceled this year. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause and will look forward to hosting this event once again next year.
