Zoning Ordinance Review Committee

Copperas Cove, Texas – The City of Copperas Cove is accepting applications to fill positions on the Zoning Ordinance Review Committee. Position vacancies include two locally recognized members of the business community, preferably having experience in urban planning, land development, engineering, architecture, real estate, construction, economic development, or local government. The purpose of the City Council appointed committee is to review Chapter 20 – Zoning of the Code of Ordinances, and make recommendations to the Planning and Zoning Commission for editing the regulations governing land use, zoning, and other matters related thereto. The committee consists of seven members, appointed to two-year staggered terms. Meetings shall be held at least once every two years, but may be held more frequently as deemed necessary.

Applications are available at 914 S. Main Street, Suite D, or on the City's website, www.copperascovetx.gov under "Forms and Applications". Completed applications must be submitted to the office of the City Secretary for consideration by City Council. Questions may be directed to City Secretary Lisa Wilson at lwilson@copperascovetx.gov or (254) 547-4221.
