Texas Arbor Day Ceremony

Copperas Cove, Texas – Keep Copperas Cove Beautiful (KCCB), Operation Stand Down Central Texas, and The Exchange Club of Copperas Cove are pleased to announce a Texas Arbor Day Ceremony on Friday, November 4, 2022. A tree planting ceremony in memory of Ronnie C. Viss will be held at 10am at Operation Stand Down Central Texas, located at 201 Carpenter Street. The ceremony is open to the general public to attend, please join us.

Mayor Dan Yancey will present an official Texas Arbor Day proclamation.

Texas first observed Arbor Day in 1889, celebrating the benefits that trees provide over a lifetime. Today, the official Texas Arbor Day is held on the first Friday in November and celebrates planting and nurturing trees and all the ways they enrich our lives and stabilize our environment.

Questions may be directed to Roxanne Flores, KCCB Executive Director, at rflores@copperascovetx.gov or (254) 547-4221 x6704.
