Passing of City of Copperas Cove Mayor – Frank Seffrood

Copperas Cove, Texas – It is with great sadness that the City of Copperas Cove reports the passing of our beloved Mayor, Frank Seffrood. Mayor Seffrood unexpectedly succumbed to a brief illness earlier this morning, Friday, December 28, 2018, while at home with his loving family. He was 79.

Mayor Seffrood was born in southern Wisconsin in 1939. He served 23 years in the United States Army, retiring in 1979. He was an educated man and held an Associate's Degree in Computer Programming and a Bachelor's Degree in Information Systems. Mayor Seffrood worked for Central Texas College from 1980-1986 and also the United States Postal Service from 1986-2010. He served as a City Councilman for 6 ½ years prior to being elected Mayor in 2015. He was most recently re-elected to serve a second three-year term as Mayor on December 11, 2018.

Mayor Seffrood, a strong Christian man who resided in Copperas Cove with his wife Rita of 55 years, leaves behind three children and three grandchildren. He had a contagious positivity, love for life, family and friends that was unparalleled and respected by many. Mayor Seffrood was a driving force in the community and he will be greatly missed.

The Seffrood family has requested respect for their privacy, however we ask that you keep them in your prayers during this difficult time.
