Officer Involved Shooting

Copperas Cove, Texas - On May 23, 2021, at approximately 12:43pm, the Copperas Cove Police Department responded to the 1500 Block of Robertson Avenue, after receiving multiple calls from citizens of a shooting incident.

When officers arrived on scene, they discovered that an off-duty Copperas Cove Police Officer was involved in the shooting. The officer was not injured during the incident, but a female driver was transported to Scott & White Hospital in Temple with non-life-threatening gunshot wounds.

The Texas Rangers are conducting the investigation. Any questions regarding the investigation should be directed to the Department of Public Safety Public Information Office.
