Update Death Investigation

COPPERAS COVE, TEXAS – On December 12, 2020, at approximately 9:32 pm, Copperas Cove Police Officers responded to the 1300 block of Fairbanks Street in reference to a welfare check.

Upon arrival, officers made contact with the reporting party but were not able to make contact with the residents of the home. The officers entered the home where they located three deceased individuals. A fourth individual was located in the residence and was taken to the police department for questioning.

Update:

The fourth individual located at the home was identified as 27-year-old Bryan Richardson and has been charged for three counts of Murder.

Bryan Richardson was arraigned by Justice of the Peace John Guinn on December 13, 2020 and received a $750,000 bond for each count, for a total bond amount of $2,250,000.
